Aloha Saint Louis School Parents and Guardians,

Another week has passed and homecoming is right around the corner. As you will see in some of the pictures below, Crusader pride can be seen throughout the campus as students prepare for this very special occasion. I pray that each of you will have a wonderful weekend and I hope to see you at the football game. Stay CrusaderStrong!

Memor et Fidelis,

Dr. Glenn Medeiros
Saint Louis School
Head of School
Mindful & Faithful
An Inside Look at Crusaders Living and Learning the Characteristics of a Marianist Education
Volume 2

Formation in Faith  Family Spirit  Adaptation & Change  Service, Justice, & Peace  Integral Quality Education

Students in physical education class work on their lunging skills:

One! Two! Three! Go Crusaders!
Captain Honolulu! Did you think of that too after seeing this picture?

More Crusader pride as these students lead their classmates!
I couldn’t help but take a candid picture of our football players taking the initiative to pray together before our game started:

1st Sgt. Akuna works his magic with our JROTC students:
In this picture, this Saint Louis School student shares his experience with parents and students as a cadet in the Civil Air Patrol. He was one of the first students to join the new 77th Saint Louis School Crusader Squadron:

These students lead the school in prayer by singing during Mass in Mamiya Theater: