Aloha Saint Louis School Parents and Guardians,

It is important for us as members of a Marianist school to truly live out the Characteristics of a Marianist Education on a consistent basis. Some of the events that took place this week act as small reminders to ourselves that we continue to aim towards providing various opportunities for Formation in Faith, Family Spirit, Adaptation and Change, Service, Justice, & Peace, and finally, an Integral Quality Education. Please review these pictures below knowing we are taking the steps necessary to teach these values to our students. Have a great weekend!

Memor et Fidelis,

Dr. Glenn Medeiros
Saint Louis School
Head of School

... It was both a pleasure and an honor for our students to join the Men’s March Against Violence this week.

Here students practice hitting their targets at our own rifle range.

It’s always nice to see our teachers spending their free time with students.
Students had the pleasure this week to listen to a presentation made by representatives of the U.S. Marine Corps.

Father Pat shared his wisdom through the telling of a very touching story at Mass in the Mystical Rose Chapel.
... Here teachers, administrators and students work together to greet families attending an event in Mamiya Theater.

... One of the advantages of sitting in the front row is that I can take pictures like this one.

... JROTC students fine tune their rope climbing skills.
As I walked out of Mamiya Theater, I could not help but feel the family spirit surrounding me. I even saw fathers and sons comparing the rings they received at their respective Saint Louis School Rites of Passage ceremonies.
