Aloha Saint Louis School Parents and Guardians,

I want to take this opportunity to thank our outstanding Parent Teacher Ohana comprised of energetic Crusader parents who spent many hours preparing for the Book Fair we had this week in the Tseu Presidential Suite of the Clarance T.C. Ching Learning and Technology Center.

In addition to the Book Fair, you will see in this newsletter several of our amazing teachers working with students to develop their skills, which are all a part of the integral quality education provided at all Marianists schools locally, nationally, and internationally. We are very proud to be one of the oldest Marianist schools in the world.

I hope to see you around campus. Have a great day!

Memor et Fidelis,

Glenn Medeiros, Ed.D.
Saint Louis School
Head of School
Here our Art teacher Mr. Amerino is showing this student how to interpret one of the sketches created by another Crusader.

In this picture, Kumu Leilani facilitates instruction in Hawaiian language on her students’ laptops.
Mindful & Faithful
An Inside Look at Crusaders Living and Learning the Characteristics of a Marianist Education
Volume 35

Formation in Faith  Family Spirit  Adaptation & Change  Service, Justice, & Peace  Integral Quality Education

Each trophy behind our JROTC commander and his cadet represents 1st place finishes in various competitions.

Our Director of Academics and 1984 graduate of SLS Michael Pa‘ekukui gives a presentation on personalized learning in Utah just a few days ago.
Members of the Class of 1954 recently met at the Mystical Rose Chapel to remember their SLS brothers who have passed on.

Our star football QB we affectionately refer to as Tua reads to elementary students at our Book Fair.