Aloha Saint Louis School Parents and Guardians,

One of the five Characteristics of a Marianist Education is Adaptation and Change. To be considered an excellent Marianist School, all five Characteristics of a Marianist Education should be clearly evident. Last school year we completed our new strategic plan with the hope of providing as many students as possible the opportunity to be Crusaders. The more students we have, the more programs, financial assistance, and facilities we can afford to offer our Saint Louis ‘ohana.

By starting the elementary school this year, we turned old and empty classrooms into active learning places where the future of Saint Louis School, our very own keiki Crusaders, will reside and eventually move into our Middle School. The introduction of grades K-4 tested our ability as a school to adapt and change when needed. Thanks to the hard work of our board members, faculty, staff, parents and students, that transition was successfully executed. According to the visiting accreditation team’s report provided to us after last week’s visit, they were very impressed with our elementary school and will be recommending that our current 6-12 accreditation be extended to grades K-5 until our next accreditation date in 2019.

Of course, none of this would be possible without your support. Thank you for making Saint Louis School your school of choice.

I hope to see you around campus. Have a great week!

Memor et Fidelis,

Glenn Medeiros, Ed.D.
Saint Louis School
Head of School
Here our Math Team develops the skills they need to compete.

Here our elementary students performed well in this month’s fire drill.
Thank you teachers for spending your weekend on campus at our haunted house!

Even our high school joined in as part of the recent fire drill we had on campus.
Mindful & Faithful
An Inside Look at Crusaders Living and Learning the Characteristics of a Marianist Education
Volume 38

Formation in Faith  Family Spirit  Adaptation & Change  Service, Justice, & Peace  Integral Quality Education

Along our hallways in Bertram Hall you will see pink as we show our support as a school for those battling Breast Cancer.

Throughout the last month, our students and teachers took part in many fun activities like this one.
Our Saturday Saints were at it again early Saturday morning serving those in need.

CEO of Matson Inc. Matt Cox visited our students at the Tseu Presidential Suite to offer our business students advice about how to be a successful leader. This presentation is part of a series of lectures that will be given this school year as part of our Entrepreneurial Series of Lectures.
Here our Principal (K-8) introduces the visiting accreditation team to our students during Morning Assembly.