Aloha Saint Louis School Parents and Guardians,

One of the five Characteristics of a Marianist Education is Family Spirit. As you can see in the pictures below family spirit is alive and well at Saint Louis School. Spreading the family spirit beyond the slopes of Kalaepohaku is something I enjoy seeing our students do when they reach out to greet me and my wife at shopping malls, in church, and at restaurants around the island. When I walk around campus, I try modeling the behavior I want to see in our young men by shaking their hands and greeting them whenever I can. My hope is that they will continue to do the same no matter where they are because gestures as simple as a handshake helps to spread the family spirit we cherish so much in this Catholic Marianist institution of learning.

Enjoy the rest of your weekend and the pictures below!

Memor et Fidelis,

Glenn Medeiros, Ed.D.
Saint Louis School
Head of School

Tua and I had a great time promoting the SLS Open House happening on Sunday 11/20 at 1pm.
Being mindful and faithful is something practiced each time we pray together.

Our sixth graders at Camp Erdman were praised by the staff there for their respectful behavior.
Our Saint Louis Men perform once again to share their amazing talents with our community.

These keiki Crusaders made it a point to say hello to me as I watched the previous week’s game from the sidelines.
Dr. Jerry Wu spoke to our business students as part of our Entrepreneurial Lecture Series.

Please support our Hui Na Opio on Friday, Dec. 9th at Mamiya Theater. You will find their dancing outstanding!
Mindful & Faithful
An Inside Look at Crusaders Living and Learning the Characteristics of a Marianist Education
Volume 41

Formation in Faith  Family Spirit  Adaptation & Change  Service, Justice, & Peace  Integral Quality Education

The weekend of the big game! As shown in this picture, our football team is united in faith and tradition.